REGISTRANT'S MOTION TO COMPEL PETITIONER TO RESPOND TO QUESTIONS AT DISCOVERY DEPOSITION AND FOR SANCTIONS

In accordance with Rule 37 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 2.120(e) of the Trademark Rules of Practice, Registrant Octagon Worldwide Holdings, B.V. ("Registrant"), hereby moves for an Order directing Petitioner, Octagon Law Group, Inc. ("Petitioner" or "OLG")), to (i) produce a designated corporate representative to answer open lines of questioning on topics which Petitioner's counsel improperly instructed the proffered representative witness not to answer and/or which the representative witness refused to answer, (ii) refrain from further instructing Petitioner's designated witnesses not to answer questions on the grounds of confidentiality or other improper objections; and (iii) that the costs of the deposition be borne by Petitioner.

At the November 7, 2013 30(b)(6) deposition of Petitioner, Petitioner's then-designated representative (Javad Heydary) improperly refused to answer series after series of material and relevant lines of questions, in violation of both the TTAB rules and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and without a valid basis for objection. Respondent reserved its right to re-open the deposition with respect to the subject matter of such information requests/deposition questions, and now seeks to compel Petitioner to comply with its discovery obligations in this proceeding it commenced, and to face sanctions for its failure to do so. In support of its motion, Registrant states as follows.

Factual Background

The Deposition Petitioner's 30(b)(6) Representative

On October 1, 2013, Registrant timely served Petitioner with its Notice of Deposition of Petitioner Octagon Law Group F.R.C.P. 30(B)(6) ("Notice of Deposition"). Declaration of Tamara Carmichael, dated November 13, 2013 ("Carmichael Decl."), Ex. A.

The Notice of Deposition required the designation of one or more of Petitioner's officers, directors, or managing agents, or other person(s) to testify on its behalf, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(b)(6) and Rule 2.120 of the Trademark Rules of Practice (37 CFR §2.120), regarding the topics set forth in the Notice of Deposition. See Carmichael Decl., Ex. A.

Petitioner objected to the Notice of Deposition, claiming that because Petitioner was located in Canada, the deposition could be by written question only. After Registrant's motion to compel the deposition and Petitioner's motion to quash were briefed, a telephone conference was held with the Interlocutory Attorney Jennifer Crisp on October 31, 2013. See Carmichael new designee with sufficient knowledge and authority to bind the company, Petitioner should withdraw this Petition.

&lt;sup>1</sup> Based on publicly available information, it is unclear whether Petitioner's corporate representative who appeared at the November 7, 2013 deposition, Mr. Javad Heydary, is deceased as of the date of filing this motion. Even if the reports are accurate that Mr. Heydary is or might be dead, Petitioner, a corporate entity, is nonetheless required to produce a corporate representative to comply with its discovery obligations. If it is unable or unwilling to produce a Decl. Ex. B (November 1, 2013 Order). During that conference and in the subsequently issued Order, the Interlocutory Attorney found good cause for the deposition to be taken orally and compelled Petitioner to appear for the deposition. Id. The Order also noted that "Counsel for petitioner has the option to attend the deposition by teleconference." Id. Notably, during the conference, counsel for Petitioner confirmed that Petitioner did not contest the topics set forth in the Notice of Deposition. Id. at fn 2.

On November 7, 2013, Petitioner produced an officer of the company, Javad Heydary as its corporate representative ("Heydary"). The deposition was held, as noticed, in Toronto, Canada. Petitioner's counsel of record in this proceeding, Maria V. Hardison of Tassan & Hardison, did not attend the deposition, either in person or telephonically. Rather, attending with Petitioner's representative was Canadian attorney Robert Kalanda, Esq., of the Heydary Hayes law firm in Toronto.

The Witness Improperly Refused To Answer Questions and Counsel Improperly Instructed The Witness Not To Answer Questions

During the deposition, Heydary, who is (or was) also a practicing attorney in Canada and a member of the New York bar in the United States, repeatedly and improperly refused to answer questions. See, e.g., Carmichael Decl. Ex. C (Excerpts of Nov. 7, 2013 Deposition Transcript ("Tr.")).

Petitioner's representative refused to answer basic questions regarding OLG's business, the services offered under its OCTAGON marks, and use or potential use of OLG's marks in the United States. The representative even refused to answer questions regarding information that was publicly available on OLG's own website, which demonstrates both the breadth of his refusals and lack of merit to any claim of "confidentiality". For example, the representative refused to answer the lines of questioning below:

- Q: Are each of those five Heydary law firms clients of Octagon Law Group, Inc.?
- A: They are.
- Q: Do any or each of the Heydary law firms have contracts with Octagon Law Group, Inc.?
- Mr. Kalanda: We are going to object to that. It is confidential business information and we won't be providing an answer.

- A: You can note that I am refusing to answer that question on that basis. That is confidential business information." Tr. at p. 19.
- Q: Apart from the five Heydary law firms, does Octagon Law Group have any other clients?
  - A: Yes.
  - Q: How Many?
  - A: Confidential information. I refuse to answer the question. Tr. at p. 21.
  - Q: What are the names of other clients of Octagon Law Group?
  - A. That is confidential information. Tr. at p. 22.
  - Q: Does Octagon Law Group have a contract with Red Seal Notary Inc.?
- Mr. Kalanda: I think we are going to object to that for the same reasons as the previous contractual questions. Tr. at 14-25.
- Q: What HR services does Octagon Law Group, Inc. provide for Red Sea Notary?
  - A. That would be confidential, the details, beyond general HR Services.
- Q: Is your answer going to be the same for administrative, IT, and marketing services?
- A: It would be. As to the details, yes. I can confirm they provide those services, as to the details, not to mention it would also be irrelevant, but I am relying on the confidentiality of the information for my refusal. Tr. at p. 25-26.
- Q: Are you refusing to answer any questions about the services provided by Octagon Law Group Inc. with respect to Red Seal Notary?
- A: If it refers any client of Octagon, information regarding their operations would be confidential on a number of levels..." Tr. at 26.
- Q. Are there any other services that Octagon Law Group provides to Heydary Elliott?
- A. General business consulting relating to law firm financing, M&A, and general management advice.
  - Q. What does that mean, management advice?
  - A. Confidential information.
- Q. I will make it easy for everybody. Would your answer to those questions be the same for Heydary Hamilton PC?
  - A. Yes.

- Q. Would your answers be the same for Heydary Samuel PC?
- A. Yes.
- Q. Would your answers be the same for Heydary Green PC?
- A. Yes.
- Q. Would your answers be the same for Heydary Hayes PC?
- A. Yes.
- Q. Are you refusing to answer questions with respect to other than marketing, other than HR, administrative, IT, marketing, and general business services being provided that you are refusing to give any details of what those services are?
- A. [The] Details I am refusing, yes, because it would be a breach of confidentiality, and that breach of confidentiality can be broken into two parts. One is our obligations in Octagon towards those entities as clients. Second, the trade secret and confidential nature of some of the operations relating to Octagon itself. Tr. at 27-28.
- Q. It is your position that the way Octagon Law Group Inc. operates its business includes trade secret and confidential business processes? Is that a fair statement?
- A. It has aspects of that. It is a unique company. To the best of our knowledge, it is one of the first if not the first company to be dedicated to those services, so a lot of processes it has, they were, for lack of a better word, invented by the company. The whole industry is a new one. We are sure the company is the first of its kind in Canada and the U.S., based on our research. Being a unique company, the first in its field, a lot of the processes it has relating to its operations would be covered by trade secret.
  - Q. What are some of those processes?
  - MR. KALANDA: I think we are going to object to that.
  - MS. CARMICHAEL:
  - Q. I have to have it on the record that he is refusing.
  - A. Yes. Tr. at 29.
- Q. Does Octagon Law Group Inc. perform services for Lawsof.com? Your lawyer can't answer the question.
- A. I am not sure I have the information you are asking me. Even if I did, it would be confidential if they are a client. Tr. at 31.
- Q. Do any of Octagon Law Group Inc.'s clients render services in the United States?
  - A. Confidential information. I couldn't answer that. Tr. at 36.
  - Q. Who are the key employees?
- A. I cannot disclose that, apart from the ones who are public employees, such as myself and Ms. Chai.
- Q. Is it helpful if I remind you that some of those key employees are listed on Octagon Law Group Inc.'s web site?
- A. If they are, they are. I don't know what our contractual obligations are to those employees, what I can disclose, what I cannot, not to mention the relevance, but we leave that aside.

- Q. I am entitled to ask you about who the employees of the company are and what their roles are and what they do.
- A. I am refusing to answer that. You can mark my refusal. We will move on. You can rely on the web site and assume those people are employees of Octagon.
- Q. You are going to refuse to answer any questions about who key employees or employees generally are and what they do for the company?
- A. I refuse to answer any question that will force me to disclose confidential information about Octagon and its operation.
- Q. Do you consider what key employees do and what their role is at Octagon Law Group Inc. to be confidential information?
- A. If it is beyond what is posted on the web site or is made public, yes. Not the information that is posted on the web site or made public. Anything beyond that would be confidential. Tr. at 39-40.
- Q. Does Octagon Law Group Inc. have strategic alliances with third-party persons or entities?
  - A. I cannot disclose that information. It is confidential.
  - Q. You won't answer whether it is yes or no?
  - A. No, I cannot answer. Tr. at 44.
- Q. Are you refusing to answer questions with respect to the identity of any strategic partners Octagon Law Group Inc. has?
  - A. I am.... Tr. at 45.
  - Q. What are some examples of that [OLG's primary client base]?
  - A. Law firms, notary companies, paralegal companies, and so forth.
  - Q. What else? Law firms, paralegal companies, notary companies?
- A. I would be disclosing confidential information. I can give you hypothetical potential clients. I would say it captures any company that provides legal services. If that is not clear, you can ask me a specific question, and I am happy to answer it. Tr. at 48.
- Q. [The OLG website] It says Octagon Law Group Inc. was founded by a group of experienced legal, accounting, marketing, IT professionals and business executives. Who are those founders?
- A. Other than the ones that are on the public record and we discussed, the rest would be covered by confidentiality. Again, consider that a refusal. Tr. at 120.
- Q. In the third paragraph in this section [of the OLG website], it says that Octagon's team is made up of highly specialized and skilled professionals in financing, marketing, accounting, information technology, human resources, and business management. Who comprises the team?
- A. Same answer. You have a list of the ones made public on the right. The rest would be considered confidential.
  - Q. Does Octagon Law Group Inc. charge some or all of its clients for its services?
  - A. Confidential. You can consider that a refusal. Tr. at 121.

- Q. Does Octagon Law Group Inc. have any clients that are entities in which you have no business, economic or equitable interest? You can read it back, because I know I said it correctly.
- MR. KALANDA: I think that goes into -- I have the question. I think that goes into, again, confidential business information. Tr. at 126.

Heydary also refused to answer questions concerning OLG's use of its marks and potential use in the United States as well as the selection of its OCTAGON marks and current use of the marks. For example:

- Q. Do you plan to have offices in the United States?
- A. I cannot answer that.
- Q. Do you plan to advertise in the United States?
- A. I cannot answer that.
- Q. Meaning you are refusing to answer?
- A. Yes. Anything to do with details of what we plan to do in the U.S., I would consider those confidential. I am happy to answer general questions as to what target market we will go after, but not any specific operational. Tr. at 64.
- Q. Who participated? Who was interested in that? [the selection and design of OLG's OCTAGON Marks]
- A. I was, along with a few other people at Octagon. Apart from having two or three internal people, we had outside people assisting, too.
  - Q. Who from the outside assisted?
  - A. I cannot disclose that. That is confidential information. Tr. at 67-68.
- Q. Does Octagon Law Group Inc. license any of the Octagon marks to its clients in Canada?
- A. That is confidential information. You can take that as a refusal to answer based on confidentiality.
- Q. Does Octagon Law Group have any license agreements in place with any clients in Canada with respect to the use of any of the Octagon marks?
  - A. The same refusal, on confidentiality basis. Tr. at 88.

In response (and on numerous occasions), Registrant's counsel explained that confidentiality was not a basis on which to refuse to answer the question, nevertheless, the witness refused to answer. He further stated: "I am refusing to answer the question based on the fact that the question is confidential, notwithstanding the fact that it is irrelevant, but it is strictly confidential." Id. p. 20. Throughout the deposition, Petitioner's corporate representative continued to refuse to answer questions, both of his own decision and in some cases after the objection of his counsel, on the purported basis of "confidential business information." See Ex. C.

Registrant's Good Faith Efforts To Resolve The Discovery Dispute Were Unsuccessful

During the early part of the deposition, after the witness refused to answer questions and it became clear that both the witness and his Canadian counsel would continuously make improper objections to Registrant's relevant and permissible questions, counsel for Registrant attempted to resolve any pending and/or future dispute and informed both that the refusals and objections were patently improper under applicable law. Counsel for Registrant then afforded the representative and Petitioner's Canadian counsel an opportunity to consult with his U.S. counsel regarding the proper scope of objections, even though she was not in attendance. See Tr. at p 17-18. Counsel for Registrant advised Heydary and his counsel that if he refused to answer questions, "We will take it up with the TTAB and come back if we need to. But we will give you five minutes as a courtesy to go talk with your U.S. lawyer about the scope of questions." Tr. at p. 17-18.

Although it is unknown to Registrant whether or not Heydary consulted with Petitioner's U.S. counsel, after the break he continued to refuse to answer questions about Petitioner Octagon Law Group's business. See Tr. pages 19 et. seq. Counsel for Registrant again informed Heydary and counsel that if "we are getting refusals to answer questions that are perfectly appropriate for this deposition, we are going to terminate the deposition and file a motion to compel and for sanctions, and if we have to come back here, we are going to look for you guys to pay that, pay for those fees and costs." Tr. at 22. Heydary and Canadian counsel both acknowledged that risk. Id. (Mr. Kalanda: "Noted." The Witness: "Noted. Thank you.").

Although Registrant's counsel repeatedly advised that "relevance is not a basis to not answer the questions" (Tr. at 16) and that confidentiality is also not a basis, but rather "Confidentiality is protected by other mechanisms" (Tr. at p. 20), the witness continued to refuse to answer questions on the basis that the information sought was confidential, and Petitioner's counsel continued to assert the baseless objections. Accordingly, and in particular given the travel and costs associated with taking the deposition, Registrant reserved all rights on all questions Registrant refused to answer and indicated that Registrant would move to compel and reopen the deposition. See Tr. at p. 88.

Following the deposition, and in further attempt to advance discovery and resolve the outstanding issues from the deposition, Registrant's counsel emailed Petitioner's U.S. counsel of record concerning the improper refusals to answer and requested that Heydary voluntarily reappear to conclude the deposition, either in New York or Toronto, with full costs and fees to be borne by Petitioner. See Carmichael Decl. Ex. D (November 18, 2013 email to M. Hardison). Registrant's counsel noted that if a continuation of the deposition was not confirmed by or before November 20, 2013, Registrant would be seeking to compel the deposition and for sanctions. Id.

Registrant's counsel responded that she was unable to confirm whether or not Petitioner's corporate representative would sit for an additional deposition. See Carmichael Decl. Ex. E (Nov. 20, 2013 email from M. Hardison to T. Carmichael (redacted)).

ARGUMENT

I. PETITIONER SHOULD BE COMPELLED TO PRODUCE A CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVE TO ANSWER QUESTIONS ITS 30(B)(6) WITNESS IMPROPERLY REFUSED TO ANSWER

At the deposition, Registrant's counsel pursued lines of questioning that were relevant, proper, and well within the bounds of permissible discovery under the Federal and TTAB rules. Registrant's questions were entirely within the scope of the un-contested topics set forth in the Notice of Deposition and did not seek disclosure of privileged information. Nevertheless, Heydary repeatedly refused to answer questions on the basis that the information sought was confidential and/or irrelevant, rendering entire subject matters and further questions futile. On occasion, Petitioner's Canadian counsel asserted the same objections, and did not instruct the witness to answer the questions. Registrant's objections and refusals to answer were improper and deprived Registrant of its right to take appropriate and relevant discovery.

The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure only permit counsel to instruct a witness not to answer a question "when necessary to preserve a privilege, enforce a limitation ordered by the court, or to present a motion under Rule 30(d)(3)." FED. R. CIV. P. 30(b)(2). The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board Manual of Procedure ("TBMP") further states that objections should be limited to those that might be waived pursuant to Rule 32(d)(3) if not raised during the deposition, none of which include an objection that the question is irrelevant or seeks confidential information. TBMP § 404.08(c). In fact, Rule 32(d)(3) specifically categorizes objections to relevance and materiality such as those raised repeatedly and inappropriately by Applicant's counsel as not being waived, and therefore not appropriate during deposition, and most certainly not grounds on which to instruct a witness not to answer a question. See, e.g., ZCT Sys. Group, Inc. v. FlightSafety Int'l, 2010 WL 1257824 at *2 (N.D. Okla. Mar. 26, 2010)

("The instruction not to answer ... was improper because FSI was not seeking to preserve a privilege, enforce a limitation ordered by the court or in order to present a motion under Rule 30(d)(3)."). Rule 404.08(c) further provides that "Questions objected to ordinarily should be answered subject to the objection" and that a witness may only properly refuse to answer a question seeking information which is privileged or not otherwise subject to disclosure under the terms of either the Board's standard protective order (or other agreed to and approved protective order). TBMP § 404.08(c). The proper procedure, under the TBMP is for the witness to answer the question as posed, and the objection to be considered by the Board at final hearing. Id.

The proper remedy for Petitioner's failure to answer Registrant's questions is an order to compel the witness' attendance at an additional deposition. TBMP § 411.04 ("if a party . . . fails to answer any question propounded in a discovery deposition, the party seeking discovery may file a motion with the Board for an order to compel a designation, or attendance at a deposition, or an answer"); 37 C.F.R. § 2.120(e)(1) ("If a party fails ... to answer any question propounded in a discovery deposition ... the party entitled to disclosure or seeking discovery may file a motion to compel disclosure, a designation, or attendance at a deposition, or an answer); Neville Chem. Co. v. Lubrizol Corp., 183 U.S.P.Q. 184 (TTAB 1974) ("In the event that opposer not only objects to, but also refuses to answer, certain questions during the course of the deposition, applicant may compel an answer") (citing 37 C.F.R. § 2.120(c), now (e)).

II. PETITIONER SHOULD BEAR THE COSTS OF THE CONTINUED DEPOSITION

The Board has already issued one order compelling Petitioner to appear for the deposition. See Carmichael Decl. Ex. B. Petitioner's blatant failure to comply with that order and with the TMBP and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure has necessitated yet another motion to compel in order to force Petitioner to comply with its discovery obligations in the proceeding it initiated. Registrant should not be forced to bear the burden of Petitioners repeated refusals to comply with its discovery obligations. Accordingly, Registrant respectfully submits that Petitioner should bear the costs and fees for the continued deposition, and requests that the deposition be held in New York, by no later than February 10, 2014.

RELIEF SOUGHT

For the foregoing reasons, Registrant respectfully requests that the Board issue an Order directing Petitioner to:

(1) produce a corporate representative to answer the questions and lines of questioning which its previous representative refused to answer, along with any follow-up questions on those areas of inquiry, by no later than February 10, 2014;

(2) refrain from refusing to answer (or counsel instructing the witness not to answer) questions on the basis of confidentiality or relevance or any other improper basis; and

(3) pay all costs and fees for the continued deposition.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION OF TAMARA CARMICHAEL IN SUPPORT OF REGISTRANT'S MOTION TO COMPEL PETITIONER TO RESPOND TO QUESTIONS AT DISCOVERY DEPOSITION AND FOR SANCTIONS

1. I am a partner at Loeb & Loeb LLP, counsel for Registrant Octagon Worldwide Holdings, B.V. ("Registrant"). I submit this declaration in support of Registrant's Motion to Compel Petitioner Octagon Law Group, Inc. ("Petitioner") to respond to questions at discovery deposition and for sanctions. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein and can testify competently hereto.

- 2. On October 1, 2013, Registrant timely served Petitioner with its Notice of Deposition of Petitioner Octagon Law Group F.R.C.P. 30(B)(6) ("Notice of Deposition"). A true and correct copy of the Notice of Deposition is attached as Exhibit A.
- 3. Petitioner objected to the Notice of Deposition, claiming that because Petitioner was located in Canada, the deposition could be by written question only. After Registrant's motion to compel the deposition and Petitioner's motion to quash were briefed, a telephone conference was held with the Interlocutory Attorney Jennifer Crisp on October 31, 2013. A true and correct copy of the resulting November 1, 2013 Order granting Registrant's motion to take the deposition is attached as Exhibit B.
- 4. On November 7, 2013, Petitioner produced an officer of the company, Javad Heydary as its corporate representative ("Heydary"). The deposition was held, as noticed, in Toronto, Canada. Petitioner's counsel of record in this proceeding, Maria V. Hardison of Tassan & Hardison, did not attend the deposition, either in person or telephonically. Rather, attending with Petitioner's representative was Canadian attorney Robert Kalanda, Esq., of the Heydary Hayes law firm in Toronto.
- 5. During the deposition, Heydary repeatedly and improperly refused to answer questions and counsel repeatedly instructed the witness not to answer questions. True and correct copies of excerpts of the November 7, 2013 Deposition Transcript are attached as Exhibit C.
- 6. During the deposition, I made a good faith effort to resolve the issues presented in this motion. Among other things, I afforded the representative and Petitioner's Canadian counsel an opportunity to consult with Petitioner's U.S. counsel regarding the proper scope of objections, even though she was not in attendance. I also advised Heydary and counsel that if he refused to answer questions, "We will take it up with the TTAB and come back if we need to" and would file a motion to compel and for sanctions See Ex. C. at p 17-18, 22, 88.

Following the deposition, and in a further good faith attempt to resolve the outstanding issues from the deposition, I emailed Petitioner's U.S. counsel of record concerning the improper refusals to answer and requested that Heydary voluntarily re-appear to conclude the deposition, either in New York or Toronto, with full costs and fees to be borne by Petitioner. A true and correct copy of the November 18, 2013 email to M. Hardison is attached as Exhibit D.

8. Registrant's counsel responded that she was unable to confirm whether or not Petitioner's corporate representative would sit for an additional deposition. A true and correct copy of the November 20, 2013 email from M. Hardison to T. Carmichael (redacted) is attached as Exhibit E.

7.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE Trademark Trial and Appeal Board P.O. Box 1451
Alexandria, VA 22313-1451

Mailed: November 1, 2013 Cancellation No. 92056629 Octagon Law Group Inc.

v.

Octagon Worldwide Holdings B.V.

Jennifer Krisp, Interlocutory Attorney:

This proceeding is before the Board for consideration of respondent's September 30, 2013 motion to take petitioner's deposition orally, as well as respondent's October 15, 2013 motion to quash respondent's notice of deposition of petitioner.

To resolve the issues presented in the motions, the Board convened a telephone conference, held on October 31, 2013. See Trademark Rule 2.120(i)(1); TBMP § 502.06(a) (2013). Participating were petitioner's counsel Maria Telephone conferences are particularly useful for resolving motions where time is of the essence. The Board has the discretion to decide a motion by conference prior to the expiration of the written briefing period for filing a response and/or reply brief. If a response has not yet been filed, the non-moving party should be prepared to make an oral response to the motion during the conference. Similarly, if a reply brief in support of a pending motion has not yet been filed, the moving party should be prepared to present its reply during the conference. TBMP § 502.06(a) (2013).

Hardison, Esq., respondent's counsel Tamara Carmichael, Esq., and the assigned interlocutory attorney.

The Board has reviewed the parties' arguments and submissions, but for efficiency does not restate them herein in their entireties. This order summarizes the analysis and findings based on the briefs, and any responsive or reply arguments and clarifications made during the conference.

Trademark Rule 2.120(c)(1) provides:

The discovery deposition of a natural person residing in a foreign country who is a party or who, at the time set for the taking of the deposition, is an officer, director, or managing agent of a party, or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or Rule 31(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, shall, if taken in a foreign country be taken in the manner prescribed by § 2.124 unless the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, upon motion for good cause, orders or the parties stipulate, that the deposition be taken by oral examination.

Trademark Rule 2.123(a)(2) provides:

A testimonial deposition taken in a foreign country shall be taken by deposition upon written questions as provided by § 2.124, unless the Board, upon motion for good cause, orders that the deposition be taken by oral examination, or the parties so stipulate.

In determining whether good cause exists for a motion to take a foreign deposition orally, the Board, taking into account all relevant circumstances, weighs the equities, including the advantages of an oral deposition, as well as any financial hardship that the nonmoving party might suffer if the deposition were taken orally in the foreign country.

See Jain v. Ramparts Inc., 49 USPQ2d 1429, 1431 (TTAB 1998);

Orion Group Inc. v. Orion Insurance Co.P.L.C., 12 USPQ2d 1923, 1925-26 (TTAB 1989).

Counsel clarified that on October 1, 2013, respondent noticed the oral deposition of petitioner, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6), to take place November 7, 2013, in Toronto, Canada, where petitioner is located.<sup>2</sup>

The Board is satisfied that the common and standard advantages of taking the deposition orally, including the ability to confront the witness and employ exhibits in a direct fashion, are present in this proceeding.

Regarding direct financial hardship that petitioner might suffer if the deposition were taken orally in Canada, the Board finds that any such hardship - identified by counsel for petitioner as petitioner's expense of having its counsel travel to Toronto - is minimal. Counsel's travel is not an exceptional expense associated with litigation, and petitioner's situation does not pose extraordinary circumstances. By commencing this proceeding, petitioner is availing itself of a U.S. tribunal, and seeking to take the deposition orally is not overreaching on respondent's part. As a practical matter, travel to Toronto is not significantly more costly or more troublesome than travel within the fifty states. Counsel for petitioner has the option to attend the deposition by teleconference; in general, the Board encourages parties to use technological benefits in taking depositions. See Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Healthcare Personnel Inc., 21 USPQ2d 1552, 1553 (TTAB 1991).

Lastly, petitioner's argument regarding inconvenience and projected loss of income for its designee does not present a hardship which is unique to this deponent, or is of the nature that outweighs respondent's right to depose petitioner in the manner it deems to be most appropriate. Although acknowledged, this hardship is minimal. Counsel for respondent will travel to Toronto, and she indicated that she does not anticipate that the deposition will be inordinately lengthy.

In view of all of the circumstances presented on motion and during the conference, the Board finds that respondent has demonstrated good cause to justify taking the deposition of petitioner by oral examination, as noticed. Respondent's motion to take petitioner's deposition orally is granted. Petitioner's motion to quash respondent's notice is denied.

Discovery and trial dates remain as reset in the Board's February 14, 2013 order.

any element of the notice, other than that which is briefed on the record herein.

Dear Maria:

As you may be aware, at his recent deposition, Mr. Heydary improperly refused to answer series after series of material and relevant lines of questions, in violation of both the TTAB rules and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Mr. Heydary's refusals to answer and objections, based upon a purported claims of irrelevance and confidentiality, are wholly improper, inadequate and unacceptable. Even after we provided Mr. Heydary the opportunity to telephone and consult with you during the deposition, he continued to refuse to answer questions, rendering entire subject matters and further questions futile. As a result, we reserved our right to re-open the deposition with respect to the subject matter of such information requests/deposition questions.

As we advised Mr. Heydary and his Canadian counsel at the deposition, the deposition will need to be continued, and Mr. Heydary, who instituted this proceeding, must answer the questions and lines of questioning posed in accordance with the rules of the TTAB and the Federal Rules.

Please advise, by no later than close of business Wednesday, November 20, 2013, whether Mr. Heydary will agree to appear voluntarily for a continued deposition, either in New York or Toronto, at Petitioner's cost. If he does not agree to appear, we will move to compel his appearance and for sanctions for failure to comply with discovery obligations. Given the egregious nature of your client's refusal to answer questions, we have no doubt that the Board will grant such relief.
